It's That Time Already...

The 2024 agreements are in the office and your first payment of $309 is due. Seasonals need to let me know if you are coming back next year BY FRIDAY AUG. 18th.

Do NOT decide to camp if you can't afford to.

I need those payments on TIME so I can pay MY bills. If you are behind (as FOUR of you still are) I am yanking trailers. NO-ONE has a delayed payment system.

Electric Bills are IN!
And they are HIGH.

Crafts takes a lot of creative concentration.

The flowers are lovely this year. Sandy's gladiola's are spectacular. Gail Stevens has an unusual lily in her yard. My pool garden has never looked better thanks to Andree!

My decision on

Electric Bikes...No!

They ran into Chip & Donna's garden toppling her potted plants. They go too fast on their bikes as it is.
