Ms. Markham Reigns Supreme

This is it Dad...the famous Ms. Markham Meadows Contest. You dress as your best girl and we will determine who looks the best. $50 goes to the winner! Get on it!

It did my heart good to see kids (and adults) painting and decorating shells! Good old-fashioned, get-your-hands-dirty crafts. Everyone also enjoyed Carol's thread craft last week!

New Backwater Flow Preventors are in! Do NOT touch them, paint them, polish them, decorate them, name them or REMOVE them. They must stay on!!!!

Richard's grandchildren visited last week: Abby with Grampa & C.J. caught a fish!

New Graywater Tanks are in! See above. Make sure you have nothing more than a garden hose with the appropriate valve cap attached to your trailer and feeding into the new hole in the ground. No exceptions. Thanks!

Lawn Mowing Reminder: Seasonals are responsible for mowing their lawns. And they need to be done weekly. If you have no desire to mow contact Mike on #24 and pay him do it for you!

Things to Note!

WiFi: Campers east of the office should log on to "Field Side" while those of you west of the office should log onto "Pond Side." Additionally, streaming videos takes extra band width—causing everyone else to experience poor service.

Quiet hour is strictly enforced at 11 p.m.

Quote of the week: What other people think of you is none of your business...or they would tell you.

If you haven't been up for breakfast yet, you don't want what you're missing!

Happy Birthday to: Maggie on the 10th and Nathan on the 12th!
